'COOPERATIVE' FOOD BODIES ARE FAKES

Public Warned Also Against Army Store Frauds.

A warning against fake "cooperative" purchasing associations was issued yesterday by Herschel Jones, director of the New York office of the State Division of Foods and Markets. Several of these organizations, he eald, really were designed to build up profitable private and are not cooperative at all. For inthe right of Gov. Edwards, formation as to the character of these the complaints and let it organisations, he said, persons should America at 2 West Thirteenth street. Mr. Jones remarked that two-thirds for alleged neglect of duty of these movements had succeeded in isconduct in office. The charges, enlisting in their letter head committees people of high standing in munity and have managed to obtain commission because of its the use of civic bodies, churches and trolley fare and other even public schools for their propumasters Corps also issued a warning yesterday against fictitious army stores. He announced that the store now conducted by the zone supply officer at 461 Eighth avenue will close on Wednes-day, May 5, after which there will be no Government stores in this city.
